Curriculum Intentions

1. Children feel safe, secure and believe they matter, enabling them to play, discover and belong.

2. Children explore the characteristics of effective learning, building their foundations to become strong lifelong learners and independent thinkers.

3. Children engage in a broad curriculum; they learn and develop in ways which are meaningful for them.

4. Children are confident to take their next steps in education and life.